DISCUSSION

After watching the videos, take some time to discuss and respond to these questions using the space below.

Baptism is like being adopted into God's family. What rights and responsibilities do adopted children have? What rights and responsibilities does someone who is adopted by God have?

What does a brand mean on an animal? What does God's brand in baptism mean to you?

What do you remember about the first time you took communion?

Can you have communion alone by yourself? Why or why not?

PROJECT (CHOOSE ONE)

OPTION ONE: WRITE

Read Luther's explanations of The Sacrament of Holy Baptism (Lutheran Handbook pp. 214-216 or The Sacrament of Holy Communion (Lutheran Handbook pp. 222-223). Then, write a 1-2 paragraph response to the question: What does (Baptism/Communion) mean to me? Use some of the discussion questions above to get started. Turn in your response to Erin.

OPTION TWO: CREATE & REFLECT

Choosing either Baptism or Communion, create a visual representation (drawing, painting, sculpture, etc.) of what that sacrament means to you. Write a short 3-4 sentence reflection. Turn both in to Erin.
